Congressional Mailing Lists:

If you want to send a mailing to House and Senate members in either their Congressional office in Washington or to their district offices Congress Merge can provide you with mailing addresses in a format that is easily transformed into mailing labels – Access, text (flat file), or Excel. The records include the names of the representative and/or senator and their Capitol suite number for mailings going to their Washington, DC, office or the names of the representative and/or senator and their district office mailing address. The tables are available for the entire Congress or just the House of Representatives or just the Senate. Congress Merge can also break down the mailing lists by committee, subcommittee memberships, or individual states.

File Format: Excel
